

Economic Justice then and now: the Biblical

Way with Dr. Richard Horsley Mar 5-6

$60 for all 3 lectures, lunch included.

Lecture: Introduction to Biblical Economics

Friday, March 5, 7-9pm $20

Dr. Horsley will introduce the concept of Biblical Economics from a historical and biblical perspective focusing on how the term may pose some significant challenges to the unprecedented concentration of power and wealth in the global capitalist system in these "depressing" times.

Workshops:

Saturday, March 6 10am-12pm $20

Economics of the Mosaic Covenant

The Ten Commandments were principles that protected the people's social-economic rights in key areas of social interaction in Israel's Covenant with God on Sinai. Discussion of how the covenantal economic principles may be applicable to the overlapping covenantal communities of the church, constitutional countries, and international economics, especially under globalization, will occur.

Saturday, March 6 1pm-3pm $20

Jesus' Renewal of Covenant Economics

Exploring the "Sermon on the Plain," the "Sermon on the Mount," and other Gospel texts, we will discuss of the pertinence of Jesus renewal of covenant for disintegration of community today under economic pressures of centralization of wealth.

Tibetan Bowl Meditation

Spring Equinox March 21, 7-9pm $20
Join John Akim Gosaw as he shares his knowledge and experience in a meditation of sound and light – an unforgettable experience in the Knox Labyrinth.

Gosaw's life has always been motivated by sound and light. At age 15 he was initiated into the nada or sound. He discovered the Tibetan Singing Bowls after a near death experience at age 25. True healing and insight touched him from the sounds and vibration from these ancient instruments.

Spring Labyrinth Gallery

Experience the beautiful and unique work of one of Knox's own artists – in the Labyrinth at coffee hour Pentecost Sunday, May 23rd at noon.
